Dear Sirs

Mr. Blwell
returned this morning,
and reports a fine time
but few fish as they are not biting much.
Have just had Dr.
Streets down at the headquarters (Mr. Blwell's store), and told them what you said. We have concluded to accept your offer, and
have you send us down some coins. We will not promise how many
we shall keep; especially
Mr. Blwell & myself as we both feel poor at present.

Dr. Streets would like you to send ~~one half cents~~

Half Cents:

✓ 1795 - the 4 varieties (Scott Co's Catalogue).

✓ 1797 - Lettered edge

" - "1 over date, with pale"

1802 -

1803 over 2 -

1804 - plain 4 -

" - cross 4, stemless wreath,

" - "cross 4, protruding tongue & chin"

✓ 1805 over 3 -

1806 large 6 -

1809 over 6 -

" - "inner circle to O in date"

✓ 1816 -

Cents:

1828

1829

} Light olive or dark olive -
Uncirculated
or fine.

I hardly know what
to say I want to see now,
as I hardly know how to spare anything for
coins for some time.
But I will put down
some to look at anyway,
and we will take care
of them and when you get home send them back
if they are over "our pile".
It will take very little to get over my pile

excepting the early ones of which you might send some, please send & had better stop at your mill not have to send any suppose to the Ball Deposit north. Yours Truly Charles S. Shepard.

for the rest of this year,
Half Cents:
1802 -
1825 - "Uncirculated" only -
1807 - " or fine -
1808 - " or fine -
1849 - (large date) " only -

Cents:
1799 - Send me that $4. -
one I was looking at, & some others.
1804 -
1819 - Small date, stars
close
1820 - Small date -
1836 -
1839 - like '38 -
" - Billy head -
1846 - Large date
1843 - Obv. & Rev. of '44,
1855 - Slanting '55,
4/1804,
Except the 1799 I want
only Uncir. or extremely fine,
If you have they different shades of color I would like to see 2 or 3 shades, Dr. Streets said that if you had them he would like to see 2 or 3 of a date, I only saw him a few minutes and on the list he gave me he did not indicate what conditions he wanted
sent, but he wants fine ones,
